

BADEN POWELL COLLEGE

INTERNET, SERVER AND WIN ONLINE LEARNING AGREEMENT FOR STUDENTS

As a user of the Internet, Server and Online Learning Environment provided by Baden Powell College I accept that I must abide by the following rules of use.

1: I accept that communication such as email and publishing of any electronic documents abides by our school motto "Looking Forward, Staying ahead". And therefore all electronic communication should be conducted in the exact same manner that is expected in the classroom.

2: I will never share private information such as telephone numbers, addresses and personal contact details with others.

3: I will not access personal email chat or messaging programs such as MSN, Myspace, Yahoo chat or Hotmail on school computers.

4: I will not share my username or password with others.

5: I will not attempt to log on to computer resources as anyone else but myself.

6: I will not attempt to access content over the internet that would be deemed inappropriate in a school setting.

7: I will not install programs from the internet or from home on school computers without consulting our ICT Co-ordinators

8: I will not print personal documents or images on school computers without consulting my classroom teacher. I also understand that printing is a limited resource and I must try to minimise waste.

9: I will not damage or misuse computer hardware or resources such as laptops, digital cameras and voice recorders and I will report any breakage to our ICT Co-ordinators.

I _____ agree to all of the above rules of computer usage at Baden Powell College and am aware that if I break any of these rules I am subject to suspension of my computer privileges and / or general school privileges.
